BULLETIN NO. 610-21

SUBJECT: Excusing Federal Employees From Duty on January 25, 1973, a Day of Mourning for Former President Johnson

Heads of Agencies and Independent Establishments:

Former President Lyndon B. Johnson passed away January 22, 1973. President Nixon has proclaimed Thursday, January 25, 1973, to be a National Day of Mourning throughout the United States.

By Executive Order 11700, the President has ordered excused from duty on January 25, 1973, all Federal employees except those who, in the judgment of the head of the agency, cannot be excused for reasons of national security or other public reasons. Instructions for handling pay and leave administration on this day of mourning for all affected employees are attached.
